FINDINGS

1. Respondent Dove Capital Corporation, ("DOVE") is a California corporation authorized to transact business in Arizona as a mortgage broker, license number MB 0907985, within the meaning of A.R.S. §§ 6-901, et seq. The nature of Dove's business is that of making, negotiating, or offering to make or negotiate loans secured by Arizona real property, within the meaning of A.R.S. § 6-901(6).

2. Respondent Lawrence V. Jackson., ("Mr. Jackson") is the President and one hundred percent (100%) owner of DOVE. Mr. Jackson is authorized to transact business in Arizona as a mortgage broker within the meaning of A.R.S. § 6-903(E).

3. DOVE, before conducting business as a mortgage broker, is required to have a surety bond, deposited with the Superintendent, pursuant to A.R.S. § 6-903(G), in the required amount pursuant to A.R.S. § 6-903(H).

4. On December 8, 2008, the Department received notification from The Guarantee Company of North America USA, stating that Dove's surety bond, number RM76025495, in the amount of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00), is being terminated effective January 11, 2009.

5. On December 8, 2008, the Department sent a letter to DOVE, to the address on record with the Department, via certified mail, informing them of the bond cancellation.

6. On February 10, 2009, the Department received an email from Mr. Jackson stating he would contact the bonding company today and make sure the bond is up-to-date and forward the bond to the Department.

7. DOVE failed to provide documentation regarding the reinstatement of their bond or documentation of a new surety bond.

8. DOVE does not have the required surety bond in order to conduct business as a mortgage broker.

9. DOVE is not currently in good standing with the Arizona Corporation Commission.

10. The conduct described above constitutes an immediate threat to the public health, safety, and welfare, warranting immediate suspension of Respondents' mortgage broker license because Respondents are able to conduct business in Arizona as a licensed mortgage broker and they do not have the required surety bond.

11. The mortgage broker license of DOVE is suspended.

12. The conduct described above constitutes grounds for revocation of Respondents' mortgage broker license.

LAW

1. Pursuant to A.R.S. Title 6, Chapter 9, the Superintendent has the authority and duty to regulate all persons engaged in the mortgage broker business and with the enforcement of statutes, rules, and regulations relating to mortgage brokers.

2. By the conduct set forth above in the Findings DOVE and Mr. Jackson violated A.R.S. § 6-903(G) by failing to maintain the required surety bond.

3. Respondents have not conducted business in accordance with the law and violated Title 6, Chapter 9 and the rules relating to this chapter, which are grounds for the suspension or revocation of Respondents' license pursuant to A.R.S. § 6-905(A)(3).

4. The violations, set forth above, constitute grounds for the pursuit of any other remedy necessary or proper for the enforcement of statutes and rules regulating mortgage brokers in Arizona pursuant to A.R.S. §§ 6-123 and 6-131.

5. Pursuant to A.R.S. § 6-132, Respondents' violations of the aforementioned statutes are grounds for a civil penalty of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) for each violation for each day.

WHEREFORE, if after a hearing, the Superintendent makes a finding of one or more of the above described violations or other grounds for disciplinary action, the Superintendent may: (1) suspend or revoke DOVE and Mr. Jackson's mortgage broker license pursuant to A.R.S. § 6-905; (2) order any other remedy necessary or proper for the enforcement of statutes and rules regulating mortgage brokers in Arizona under A.R.S. §§ 6-123 and 6-131; and (3) impose a civil penalty pursuant to A.R.S. § 6-132.

EFFECTIVE this 20th day of May, 2009.
